HAWKWOOD

centre for future thinking

At Hawkwood Centre for Future Thinking we place creativity and culture at the heart of our work.

We provide a cultural education programme – both online and on-site – covering new models of creative leadership, performing & visual arts, artistic residencies, changemaker fellowships, festivals, concerts, talks and so much more!

We aim to encourage people to make a considered difference to today's society and to our future, and our place provides an ethical, peaceful and inspirational environment to enable individuals and organisations to grow and develop.
